What's Happening Today?!

PICK-A-GIFT TODAY – You can pick a gift (or gifts) to provide to the 8 families we are helping through the holidays. We have a wish list from each family and during the service Sunday baskets will be passed with a paper ornament and an item written on it. We will be collecting the items wrapped and labeled with the family number and the initials of the recipient on Sun. 12/17. We will provide grocery store gift cards and gifts for them to unwrap. Please plan to participate – it warms the heart to imagine a child receiving gifts when they might otherwise not. If you are not able to pick a gift to give families always ask for grocery store gift cards, Target, Walmart, etc.

HOLIDAY SEASON SCRIP GIFT CARDS – Looking for something to stuff those stockings, need ideas for tough names on your list, have teachers that need a little thanks, looking for something to include in a card, or want to help end food insecurity in our community and help someone in need? Check out the Holiday Season Scrip Gift Card selection. We have an expanded array of great choices just for this month. Place your order using the Order Form on the scrip table in the lobby TODAY!

WALK AND TALK WITH THE PRESIDENT – Join Frank Hazzard for a walk around Lake Elkhorn (approximately 2 miles) starting this Sunday morning after the first service. Leave from Sanct. B approximately 20 minutes after the first service and walk at the pace of the slowest in the group. You can help set the agenda. We can discuss anything that interests you.

HOLIDAY SUPPER FOR CONSUMERS OF MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES will be held on Sunday, December 17th, 3-5:30 pm at the Florence Bain Senior Center, sponsored by NAMI and UCC. Volunteers and Donations needed: hams, casseroles, salads, rolls, desserts, setup, servers, carvers, cleanup, etc. Cash donations accepted for food and door prizes. Harvey Zorbaugh will be there to answer your questions and sign you up TODAY after service in Sanct. B and on 12/10. We expect 80 to 100 guests!

UCC's KARUNA MINISTRY is a lay team of trained pastoral caregivers who are available to serve you in times of transition, sorrow, illness, grief, celebration, or joy. If you would like to speak to a caregiver, contact us at:
karuna@uucolumbia.net or call Candy Wachterman at 443-802-6014.

WREATHS ARE IN! PICK-UP TODAY! Today, after service, please pick up your holiday greens downstairs in the office suite lobby! If you ordered holiday greens from us during the Quest Boston Trip Fundraiser in October, they are here to pick up! We can take cash, checks, and credit cards! If you cannot pick up your greens today, please contact Youth Director Jen Raffensperger (ydir@uucolumbia.net) to make other arrangements. If you did NOT order a wreath ahead of time, we do have a few "EXTRAS" in-stock for purchase! We will have a list of what's available downstairs – come down and check it out!

HOWARD COUNTY AGAST (ADVOCACY GROUP AGAINST SLAVERY & TRAFFICKING) is collecting holiday gift bags for survivors of human trafficking. Please place 8 individually wrapped items into a holiday gift bag no larger than 12" high, 10" wide, 5" deep (the standard, medium-sized bag). Please mix and match your gifts from among the following groups. For many reasons, please do not include items that are not listed:

- Two or three warm, winter accessories: hat, gloves, scarf, headband, socks
- A small wallet, clutch, purse, coin purse, tote bag
- A simple jewelry item
- A scented soap or small bottle of shower gel
- A bath "pouf" sponge
- A small tube/bottle of hand or body cream or lotion (2-8 oz.)
- A lip balm or gloss
- Packaged snack items on the "healthy" side

You might also include a homemade or purchased greeting card, signed "Happy Holidays", or with your first name. Please contact Barbara Wright-Scott (bwrightscott@loyola.edu or 410-997-5892) to arrange to drop off your bag. The donation deadline is Dec. 11th! Thank you!

RECRUITING SOUND TEAM MEMBERS! Would you like to be one of the people behind the scenes making everyone sound great? Making the presenters feel heard and at ease that you have their needs met? Then the sound team is for you! Training is provided and you will usually only have to be accountable for one service a month. Training is usually an hour to get familiar with the set up, help set up 2 morning services, then run the sound board a couple times and you would be all set. Please contact Richard Gates @ UUCCSOUND@gmail.com or 443-718-7087 if you are interested.

GIVE THE GIFT OF HELPING OTHERS! The Food Insecurity Committee is busy collecting food for backpacks, our free pantry, and for those that need. We have made available at the Scrip Table holiday cards that you can give to everyone on your list. The holiday card indicates that you have given a gift in the recipient's honor to end food insecurity. Give any amount you want. This will make a wonderful gift particularly for the person that has everything. Ask at the scrip table for your holiday giving card.

UCC BOOKSTORE features gently used children's books this Sunday. Drop by and browse. We're also selling Elsa's jewelry, Inge's yarn necklaces and Erin's tie-dyed T-shirts. Daring Democracy, Centering, and Testimony are on the shelves.

SUNDAY FORUM – TODAY at 11:15 am in Room 213 – Why is it so hard to save for the future? House, a car, kids' education, medical/job emergency, retirement, legacy, etc. How can we make it easier? What does Behavioral Economics have to say about this? Richard Thaler received the 2017 Nobel Prize for his work on Behavioral Economics. This talk will apply the insights of his coauthored book, "Nudge," to the personal investment decisions individuals and families face, with the goal of laying out some personal strategies that can be used to increase our saving effectiveness.

The UCC Endowment Board (endowment@uucolumbia.net) is sponsoring this session because we feel that financially stronger families will lead to a financially sounder UCC, both in the short run and the long run, strengthening our ability to improve our world. The session will be presented by Charles "Scotty" Scott, Professor Emeritus of economics, Loyola University Maryland. Participants will be entered into a drawing for one of 8 copies of "Nudge" to be given away. Please contact Betsy Osterman (eo21045@gmail.com) with questions or comments about Sunday Forums.
