

The Suggested Fair-Share Contribution Guide

*Giving is a function of commitment and resources. ***

1. Estimate your projected income or resource level for the next year.
$ _____
2. ADD to your income level any unusual or periodic income, such as inheritances, business income, anticipated investment income, etc. $ _____
3. SUBTRACT any unusual expenses, such as large medical expenses, care of a parent, or a large financial expense, costs of higher education, costs of child care etc. The Result is the Adjusted Income you should use for the Fair Share:
$ _____
4. Multiply your Adjusted Income by the percentage in the row that best describes your commitment level. Fair Share : $ _____

Supporter:

The congregation is a significant part of my spiritual and intellectual life that I want to support. My fair share financial commitment starts at 2% of my adjusted income.

Sustainer:

The congregation is my central community; I am committed to sustaining the programs and ministries of my congregation. My fair share financial commitment starts at 3% of my adjusted income.

Visionary:

My commitment is a clear demonstration of the unique importance of this congregation and of my spiritual principles. My fair share financial commitment starts at 5% of my adjusted income.

Transformer:

I am deeply committed to the congregation; my contribution provides fuel for transformation and is part of my spiritual practices in living out my UU Principles. My fair share financial commitment represents 10% of my adjusted income.

Example

Adjusted Income	Percentage	Fair Share Pledge
$91,852	2%	$1837
$124,630	3%	$3740
