Singing Our UU Heritage

CENTERING THOUGHT:

When I was a child, Mama had the best voice of all the members of the church. She loved to sing. Her words soared like an angel's over the swells of the organ. In fact, I now suspected, her entire theology had been taken from the hymnal.

— Siri Mitchell

A hymnbook represents the theological and ecclesial self-understanding of a religious movement at a particular moment in history.

— Jason Shelton

Upcoming Worship Services

Sun., June 30, at 10 am – Pride and Prejudice: In the spirit of Pride Month, the Rev. Anthony Jenkins will lead a service exploring the roots of the prejudice frequently encountered by the LGBTQIA community within many of the world's faith communities. Together we'll consider some of the scriptures used most often to justify orientation-based discrimination, segregation, and legislation in their historical context – reconsidering those verses through a progressive prism.
