

Aging and Life Changes

Sunday, April 11, 2021 — 10:00 am

CENTERING THOUGHT —

*Yesterday, a lifetime was forever, immeasurable,
like a light year.
But today, swirling in a mix of tomorrows and yesterdays,
a light year is comprehensible,
measurable,
and finite.*

— from Einstein on Time by Ken Nye

Next Sunday's Worship: April 18 – 10am EasternEnvironmental Justice: Living Our UU Principles

COVID-19, environmental disasters, and climate change reveal underlying inequities and injustices that typically hit marginalized communities first and worst. As April 22's Earth Day culminates "Climate Justice Month," UUCC's Climate Crisis Team leads a service to explore what's happening in Howard County and how our UU principles can inspire us to get involved in the environmental, social, and spiritual renewal needed to overcome these interrelated crises.
