

Working for a Living

Sunday, September 5, 2021 — 10:00 am

CENTERING THOUGHT –

*It may be that when we no longer know what to do we have come to our real work, and that when we no longer know which way to go
we have come to our real journey.
The mind that is not baffled is not employed.
The impeded stream is the one that sings.*

— “Our Real Work” by Wendell Berry
(from Standing by Words, 1983)

Homecoming

In the spirit of our traditional "ingathering" service, Rev. Paige Getty leads a celebration of home ... exploring who and what and where is home ... and the various ways that we return home.

We will also honor the anniversary of the events of September 11, 2001.

This service will host a limited amount of in-person seating at the Owen Brown Interfaith Center as well as being available online to everyone. You must register ahead of time to attend in person.
